Government Code Sections 54956, 54956.5, 54957;

Special meetings may, from time to time, be called by the President of the Board of Trustees or by a majority of the members of the Board of Trustees. Notice of such meetings shall be posted at least 24 hours before the time of the meeting and shall be noticed in accordance with The Brown Act. No business other than that included in the notice may be transacted or discussed.

Emergency meetings may be called by the President of the Board of Trustees when prompt action is needed because of actual or threatened disruption of public facilities under such circumstances as are permitted by The Brown Act, including work stoppage, crippling disasters, and other activity that severely impairs public health or safety.

No closed session shall be conducted during an emergency meeting, except as provided for in The Brown Act to discuss a dire emergency.

The Chancellor shall be responsible to ensure that notice of such meetings is provided to the local news media as required by law.
