

Employees and students of the West Hills Community College District are not permitted to bring minor children to any worksite, office, classroom on campus, or to other District facilities, except as follows:

- Children enrolled in the child development centers of the District
- Children enrolled in the instructional programs of the district (i.e. high school students taking college classes)
- Children attending public events
- Children accompanying an adult accessing student services, library facilities, or other services District wide
- Children participating in classes (at the request of the instructor)
- Children participating in classes or programs hosted by the college or District (i.e. Middle College High School)

Children are defined as those being under the age of 18 years old or not emancipated from the care of parents or legal guardians.